Winter Whirl II

REQUIRED PERSONAL WINTER CAMPING EQUIPMENT

- ☐ Snow Boots – insulated, waterproof
- ☐ Waterproof pants – snow pants are excellent
- ☐ Shoes for indoor use
- ☐ Warm sleeping bag (NO slumber bags) and ground cloth
- ☐ Extra blanket – 2 blankets and/or a mattress pad
- ☐ Winter jacket/parka
- ☐ Polar fleece or shirt, pullover, or vest
- ☐ Heavy sweater - wool or acrylic
- ☐ Warm headgear – wool or polar fleece
- ☐ Shirts – wool or flannel
- ☐ Pants – wool, or lined warm-up pants, or polypro (no cotton jeans)
- ☐ Cabin/sleeping attire – a sweat suit is suggested (not to be worn except for sleeping)
- ☐ Thermal underwear (silk or polypro) – 1 full set – NOT COTTON –
- ☐ Socks: at least 2 lightweight pr. AND 2 heavy (wool or polypro)
- ☐ Mittens, gloves – wool, polypro or ski type – at least 2 pr., one pair should be ski gloves and/or waterproof
- ☐ Vapor barriers (Plastic bags that can fit over your feet)
- ☐ Bandana
- ☐ Sunglasses
- ☐ Flashlight with new batteries
- ☐ Poncho OR Raingear
- ☐ Eating utensils: Thermal cup, mess kit, utensils, dunk bag
- ☐ Toilet articles – small and simple
- ☐ Empty tuna can – clean
- ☐ Old candle stubs (1 or 2) and cardboard egg carton
- ☐ Large plastic garbage bag
- ☐ GORP (any trail mix recipe will do)
- ☐ Packets of soup and hot chocolate
- ☐ Daypack or backpack to carry items on hike – this should be a different bag from the duffel you will pack all your gear in for the weekend.
- ☐ 1 Gallon jug of water
- ☐ Signed permission slip (will receive at evening training)
- ☐ *Medical history 2 copies (will receive at evening training)
- ☐ Bag lunch for Saturday and plastic bottle with screw-on top, or canteen, filled with water – NO GLASS

COME DRESSED IN LAYERS AND BOOTS !
YOU WILL BE OUTSIDE ALL DAY