This Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA) national leadership training program prepares girls to work on GSUSA's Program Aide recognition or Leader-In-Training (LIT). Program Aides work with younger Girl Scouts in a troop, group, camp, community or council program setting under the supervision of adult volunteers or staff. LITs work with younger Girl Scouts in a troop or group setting under the supervision of adult volunteers or staff. Being a Program Aide or LIT gives you an opportunity to share your expertise and knowledge of Girl Scouting with others. Program Aides are encouraged to volunteer their hours through the program department or at one of our day camps. LITs are encouraged to volunteer their hours with our flexible delivery programs.
