PAMELA I. ANDERSON NAMED NEW CEO OF GIRL SCOUTS HEART OF THE HUDSON, INC.

Pleasantville, NY — Pamela I. Anderson of Mount Vernon, NY has joined Girl Scouts Heart of the Hudson, Inc. as its new Chief Executive Officer (CEO). In her role as CEO, Anderson will provide the vision and leadership to continue the integration of five legacy councils, covering seven counties throughout the lower Hudson River valley — Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Sullivan, Ulster, and Westchester — into one high-capacity organization.

Anderson joins the Girl Scouts following a long and distinguished career in the financial services industry. Most recently, she was a managing director and market manager for JP Morgan's Asset Management business in the Westchester County/ Hudson Valley region. Her wealth management experience at JP Morgan spans over 22 years.

In addition to her business responsibilities, Anderson was an active participant in diversity initiatives at JP Morgan Chase. Most notably, she was a founding member of the Women of Color Connections employee networking group which garnered the firm top recognition as a "Best Company to Work For — For Women of Color".

Active in community endeavors, Anderson currently serves as a trustee of the historic Abyssinian Baptist Church in New York City and is a member of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. She also served for four years as a board member of Girl Scouts of Westchester*Putnam, Inc., a legacy council of Girl Scouts Heart of the Hudson, Inc. She was a Girl Scout herself, and is the mother of a former Girl Scout.

Anderson holds a BA from Northwestern University and is a diplomate of Columbia Business School's Senior Executive Program. She is married to Bobby Anderson, a local entrepreneur. They are the proud parents of two children, Joshua (Syracuse University, Class of 2011) and Justine, a senior in high school.
