2008 National Council Session GSHH Visitor Information

All registered Girl Scouts who would like to attend the 2008 National Council Session in Indianapolis from 10/30 through 11/2 are welcome to register through the Council offices. You must register through the Council in order to get the credentials you will need to attend the convention events.

As an official visitor, you will be responsible for your own travel and housing costs and for reimbursing GSHH for your registration fees. GSHH will be getting a block of rooms at one of the official convention hotels and will make reservations for you if you wish. We will also be booking airline flights and will be happy to include you in those plans if you wish.

You will need to fill out the form below which gives us information that is needed for the registration form. The cost of the convention is $245.00 per adult and $175.00 per girl (14 to 18). All visitors must be registered Girl Scouts. We have not yet received information from GSUSA on room rates. We expect the cost of air travel to be approximately $350 from LaGuardia, not counting on any special deals or discounts.

Visitor registration information must be received by Monday, May 19, 2008.
