Dear campers and families of Camp Addisone Boyce and Rock Hill Camp,

Welcome all new and returning GSHH summer camp families to the 2025 summer camp season! We are so excited to unveil all the new and camper-favorite programs that our camp directors and outdoor experience team have been working up.

This will be my first summer with Girl Scouts Heart of the Hudson, and while I have visited our camp properties, I am very much looking forward to visiting camp during summer camp sessions to see our campers and talented camp staff in action. During the 'off season' we are continuing to make improvements to both Camp Addisone Boyce and Rock Hill Camp to provide the best possible Girl Experience in summer 2025.

Summer camps offer an incredible experience, and Girl Scout camps have that extra bit of magic that help our campers become their most authentic and best selves. GSHH camp programs offer something for every camper. Session themes range from rugged outdoor programs, to STEM activities, and the chance to flex your campers creative and theatrical skills. In addition to the themed activities, your camper will also get to participate in everything their camp has to offer whether it be swimming in the pool at CAB or the lake at Rock Hill, navigating the ropes courses, or taking aim at the archery range.

The best part is, Girl Scouts are in charge of their camp experience - while we encourage campers to try everything, camp staff will enforce a challenge by choice environment. Sometimes gaining the courage to try new things comes from watching your peers go first.

Thank you for entrusting your Girl Scouts to us, and considering GSHH camps for their summer experience. We look forward to seeing you at camp!

Yours in Girl Scouting,
Kari Rockwell
CEO, Girl Scouts Heart of the Hudson, Inc.

Top 5 Reasons to Choose Girl Scout Camp

This summer, bring her to a place that is safe, nurturing, and (most importantly) filled with fun! At GSHH's camps, we believe that Girl Scouts should not have to choose between science, technology, engineering, or math (STEM) activities or fashion, archery, fishing, or arts and crafts. We know that Girl Scouts have a wide variety of interests, and at camp, they get to try a little of everything.

1 The feeling of family!

There is nothing better than the feeling of community when a group of positive and friendly individuals come together to have fun. Girl Scout camp creates an environment that fosters healthy relationships and creates friendships that last a lifetime.

2 Safety, safety, safety!

Did you know that Girl Scout safety regulations are stricter than the Health Department? At Girl Scout camp, we have higher adult-to-youth ratios, well-trained staff, and stricter security policies ensuring that no matter how much fun they have, it's going to be as safe as possible. Both of our summer camps are accredited by the American Camp Association (ACA).

3 Guided by Girl Scouts. Chosen by Girl Scouts!

All Girl Scouts have a voice, and at camp, they are encouraged to use it, including helping to decide the activities for the week. At Girl Scout camp, campers help make decisions that affect the group and get a chance to plan the week, so it's all about them and doing what makes them happiest.

4 Outdoor Focus!

It's so easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Girl Scouts need a chance to connect with nature—look at the stars, tell stories around the campfire, walk through streams to see what lives there, or run through open fields. Being outdoors to explore is a quintessential part of childhood.

5 Positive Role Models!

When we ask campers and parents to share their favorite aspects of Girl Scout camp, the camp staff always makes the list. Our staff not only make camp fun and challenging, they inspire the next generation of girls.

Las 5 razones principales para elegir el campamento de Girl Scouts

¡Este verano, llévala a un lugar seguro, acogedor y (lo más importante) lleno de diversión! En los campamentos de GSHH, creemos que las Girl Scouts no deberían tener que elegir entre actividades de ciencia, tecnología, ingeniería o matemáticas (STEM, por sus siglas en inglés) o moda, tiro con arco, pesca o artes y manualidades. Sabemos que las Girl Scouts tienen una amplia variedad de intereses, y en el campamento, pueden probar un poco de todo.

¡El sentimiento de familia!

1

No hay nada mejor que el sentimiento de comunidad cuando un grupo de personas positivas y amigables se unen para divertirse. El campamento de Girl Scouts crea un ambiente que fomenta relaciones saludables y crea amistades que duran toda la vida.

¡Seguridad, seguridad, seguridad!

¿Sabías que las normas de seguridad de las Girl Scouts son más estrictas que las del Departamento de Salud? En el campamento de Girl Scouts, tenemos proporciones más altas de adultos a jóvenes, personal bien capacitado y políticas de seguridad más estrictas que garantizan que, sin importar cuánto se diviertan, será lo más seguro posible. Ambos campamentos de verano están acreditados por la Asociación Americana de Campamentos (ACA).

3

Todas las Girl Scouts tienen una voz, y en el campamento, se les anima a usarla, incluso a ayudar a decidir las actividades de la semana. En el campamento de Girl Scouts, los campistas ayudan a tomar decisiones que afectan al grupo y tienen la oportunidad de planificar la semana, por lo que se trata de ellos y de hacer lo que los hace más felices.

¡Enfoque al aire libre!

4

Es muy fácil quedar atrapado en el ajetreo y el bullicio de la vida cotidiana. Las Girl Scouts necesitan la oportunidad de conectarse con la naturaleza: mirar las estrellas, contar historias alrededor de la fogata, caminar a través de arroyos para ver qué vive allí o correr por campos abiertos. Estar al aire libre para explorar es una parte esencial de la infancia.

¡Modelos positivos!

Cuando les pedimos a las campistas y a los padres que compartan sus aspectos favoritos del campamento de Girl Scouts, el personal del campamento siempre hace la lista. Nuestro personal no solo hace que el campamento sea divertido y desafiante, sino que inspira a la próxima generación de niñas y jovencitas.

Medical Information

Camper Health Forms

All camper health forms will be available online through CampDocs. You will receive an email from CampDocs to set up your profile and submit your camper's medical information when the portal opens in early spring.

All camper health forms (including vaccination records, allergies, medications, insurance, physical, etc.) and the Camper Pick-Up Form are required to be submitted online through CampDocs prior to arrival at camp.

The camp nurses will review the camp health forms and contact you if sections are incomplete or if they have questions in regard to your camper's health. If health forms are not completed prior to check-in, the camper will not be allowed to remain at camp until the forms are completed. No refunds or adjustments in fees will be made for non-attendance due to incomplete health forms.

Please note: some forms may need to be signed by a parent and doctor within a year of the camper's first camp session.

Health Screening & COVID-19 Vaccinations

All campers and staff will be required to have a pre-camp negative COVID-19 test that must be presented at check-in for each session. This can be a COVID-19 lab PCR test or a rapid home test – both meet the necessary NYS guidelines.

Medications

If your camper has medication, vitamins, OTC medications, or itch relief cream, please have it labeled with their name and give it to the nurse at check-in. Medications must be labeled and in their original packaging. No pill cases or loose medication will be accepted. Campers are not allowed to have their medications with them in their units, with the exception of epi-pens and inhalers. Give these medications to the nurse at Check-in/Drop-off, they will then be given to their counselor.

Reminder: make sure to see the nurse at Check-Out/end of your camper's final camp session to retrieve your medications; they will not be given to the camper prior to Check-Out.

Process may be updated to reflect COVID-19 guidelines at the time of camp session.

*Upload to immunization section of CampDocs.

Counselors & Staff

At Girl Scouts Heart of the Hudson, your camper will have the opportunity for personal development in a safe environment. We work hard to provide these values through the hiring and training of qualified staff and offering a high-quality outdoor experience.

Camp Directors recruit and screen mature, qualified staff who have a desire to share their enthusiasm for camping, the outdoors, and arts with campers.

All camp staff participate in an intensive pre-camp training that includes Girl Scout program and philosophy, camp relationship skills, risk management, behavior management, and more. Select staff are also trained in CPR and First Aid. Additional training is provided for adventure programs and specialty activities. All camp staff may assist with specialty programs around camp, alongside a certified instructor.

Working at camp is an enriching experience where you will not only become a role model for Girl Scouts aged 5-17, but you will also grow as an individual. While caring for campers, staff become proficient in time management, problem solving, public speaking, crisis management, and more! Gaining practical skills and forming lifelong friendships are just two reasons why working at Girl Scout camp is a great way to spend your summer.

All About Camp

What are Kapers?

At Girl Scout camp, campers are active members of the camp community and are assigned daily chores, called “Kapers.”

Kapers may include picking up trash around camp, setting tables at mealtimes, or cleaning the washhouse. In addition, campers are expected to keep their personal items picked up in their living area. Kapers at RHC and CAB may differ.

Cell Phones/Technology

Today’s campers have grown up in a world connected by technological devices. An important hallmark of camp is to balance this reality with a high-quality outdoor experience aimed at inspiring respect for the natural world year-round. To provide this important experience, we require campers to leave all electronics at home. Any cell phones, MP3 players, iPods, gaming devices, wearable technology (Apple Watch, Fitbit, etc.) e-readers, iPads, tablets, and computer-like objects brought to camp will be collected and stored in the Camp Director’s office until the camper is picked up at check-out. We also highly discourage campers from bringing hair dryers or curling irons. We appreciate your family’s efforts to support this important requirement.

Swimsuits at Camp

We highly recommend you send campers with 1 or 2 single-piece swimsuits and a cover up. Due to the active nature of camp and the large number of hours spent in the sun, we want to make sure your camper is as protected as possible, which includes recommending the safest swim wear. Please be sure to also send water-proof sunscreen (recommended SPF 30 or higher). If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us.

Photography

We know how much fun your camper has with us and understand you’re excited for us to share photos of your camper’s experience with you. While we do our best to take photos, our top priority is making sure your camper is having the best camp experience possible. Photos will be posted on our social media accounts, be sure to like or follow our pages!

Here are a few things to keep in mind:

- We will post photos as often as we can. We are very busy making sure that camp is running safely and your camper is having a great experience. We are in a rural area, sometimes our camp internet goes out and delays uploading photos.
- Camp staff will not interrupt our campers’ experience to take photos, nor will we force campers to be in photos if they don’t want to be photographed.
- Candid photos are often taken while campers are doing various activities – there will be few posed pictures.
- We try to take multiple photos of each unit weekly. We cannot guarantee we can get photos of them doing everything while at camp, but we will try our best.
- Don’t worry if your camper doesn’t have a huge smile in every photo. Sometimes campers are thinking or concentrating on their activity and may not always have a big smile. If we ever have concerns about your camper while they are at camp, we will contact you.

Please see our technology policy for further details. GSHH is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged items that are brought to camp.

Campers with Special Needs (Including dietary needs)

Please contact the Camp Director for campers requiring special diets (including food allergies), special health care, or mobility accommodations.

At that time, you will be able to discuss the nature of your camper's needs and gather additional information to determine if the camp can provide the proper support, supervision, and necessary accommodations for your camper to have a safe, fulfilling, and fun camp experience.

To be successful at camp, your camper needs to be independent in showering, dressing, using the restroom, and be able to manage within the camper to staff ratio (1:1 camper to staff ratios are not permitted). We are dedicated to service ALL Girl Scouts in our council and accommodations can be made in many cases. Please contact the Camp Director for information prior to registering.

Camper Behavior

Everyone is expected to live by the Girl Scout Promise and Law while at camp. The camp staff will do everything possible to help girls adjust to camp life. GSHH reserves the right to send home from camp any camper who consistently exhibits unsuitable behavior or endangers themselves or the camp community, or whose actions toward others are unacceptable. In this case, the camper's parents/guardians are responsible for picking them up in a timely manner.

There will be no refund or adjustment for camp fees.

When Bad Weather Happens

Our outdoor activities depend on good weather. In the case of bad weather (lightning, thunder, or high winds), it may become too dangerous to continue with the activity. The decision to cancel due to bad weather is left up to the Camp Director who is trained in the safety standards of the activity.

We will do our absolute best to reschedule any canceled activities or offer an alternative replacement due to weather. This depends on the weather, the time/day of the week. Our primary concern at all times is the safety of campers and staff. No refunds or adjustments in fees will be made for canceled activities due to the weather.

We encourage you not to worry. Our staff is trained in what to do and where to go during bad/severe weather. Also, we do not want to put you in danger trying to get to camp. If an event occurs, we will implement our Emergency Plan, and our camp team will contact you with specific information regarding when and where to pick up your camper.

What if it is Really Hot Outside?

We still have fun at camp even when it's hot outside. We encourage the campers to drink plenty of water and play water games/activities. All campers are encouraged to bring a personal sized battery powered clip-on fan. Please encourage your campers to spend increasing amounts of time outdoors prior to arriving at camp so that being in the heat is not a total shock to them. In the case of heat advisories the director will be checking the appropriate sites to determine if activities will be taking place indoors, aside from the pool and low movement activities in sheltered areas.

Camp Activities

Weather permitting, each camper gets the opportunity to go swimming during their sessions. Each program listed gives a general outline of what's planned for that week, however, Girl Scouts Heart of the Hudson's camps promote camper-led program opportunities. We offer a certain amount of freedom for the campers as a group to choose their additional program options for their stay, that way no two camp sessions are ever the same! All campers will get to take part in traditional camp activities such as campfire, songs, arts and crafts, boating, archery, and swimming.

From time to time, campers may see a furry four-legged friend or other critters at camp. It is important to remember that we are in their home, and we do our best to coexist with the inhabitants of the campgrounds. That said, we take safety very seriously – if we find that an activity is unsafe due to wildlife visitors it is at the discretion of the Camp Director to cancel or reschedule an activity for safety reasons. Refunds or reimbursements of funds will not be given for canceled or rescheduled activities due to safety concerns.

Lost & Found

Please be sure to check the lost and found table during Check-Out. Each day during lunchtime a parade of lost items is displayed so that campers can retrieve their items before the end of the week. Items left behind will be sent to the Montgomery office at the end of the camp season. If not claimed, items will be donated to charity on September 30, 2025. Pick-up of lost items is required as GSHH will not mail lost items to their owners. To help prevent items being lost at camp, label items with your camper's first and last name.

Camp Names

Ever wonder why the camp staff have unique nicknames? The relationship between campers and camp staff is unlike any other. Calling staff "Ms./Mr." is too formal for the camp setting, and calling counselors by their first name is too familiar. Camp Names have become a great way to handle the 'what to call them' dilemma and is now a time-honored tradition throughout the Girl Scout Movement. Camp staff choose a name that reminds them of things they like, or places they're from, or sometimes just use a nickname from their own childhood. At camp you can meet a Sunflower, Bones, or Jewels.

Camp Traditions

All Camp

All campers and staff come together to enjoy fun games and challenges. This is a great opportunity for each unit to bond with campers from different age groups and units in the camp.

Campfire

Rock Hill Camp

Opening campfire is a special introduction to the camp week. It's a time-honored tradition where campers meet camp staff, sing camp songs, and participate in unit skits. Campers prepare a song written by their unit to perform at closing campfire in front of the whole camp to reminisce on memories from the week.

Camp Addisone Boyce

Campers at CAB who are entering grades four and up have the opportunity to stay late on Thursday nights, and campers entering grades six and up have the opportunity to stay overnight on Thursdays. During the evening, campers will enjoy a campfire and sing their favorite Girl Scout camp songs, and close out the evening with the favorite, "Linger."

Wish Log

During the closing campfire, campers will reflect on their experience throughout the week. Each camper will write their names on a log and make a wish to participate in a ceremony to commemorate their camp experiences. The log will be kept at camp for one year, the prior year's log will be burned at the campfire, signifying that although you may or may not return to camp, you will always be there in spirit.

Camp Awards

At the conclusion of All Camp on Fridays at CAB, camp specialists (swimming, boating, ropes, arts & crafts, etc.) give out awards to units who did their best during the week. A long standing tradition, these awards instill a sense of pride in the campers, and are a way to acknowledge the growth campers achieved during their session.

Missing Home

At Girl Scouts Heart of the Hudson, we prefer the term ‘missing home’ to the old phrase ‘homesickness.’ There is nothing wrong with a camper missing home, it’s a natural feeling. They aren’t ‘sick’ - missing home is the natural result of separating from home and loved ones. Almost all children (and grown-ups!) feel homesick when they’re away from home. People’s feelings vary in intensity and camp staff are prepared to handle this.

What Makes a Camper Likely to Miss Home?

- Little previous experience away from home
- Having low expectations of camp
- Feeling forced to go to camp
- Having little previous experience in the outdoors
- Being unsure if adults will assist them if they need help
- Little practice coping with negative emotions
- Parents expressing anxiety about the separation before the camper has arrived at camp

Surprisingly, research shows that some factors have nothing to do with the intensity of missing home, including geographic distance between home and camp and the presence of a friend from home at camp. Often, missing home is not problematic. When the feelings of sadness and anxiety associated with missing home become so strong that making friends, having fun, sleeping, eating, and participating in activities is difficult, we will take action. Please note, if campers are missing home, they will not be allowed to call home. A member of camp’s core team will phone the parent/guardian if necessary. The best remedy for missing home is a partnership between families and camp staff.

At-Home Prevention Strategies

- Working together as a family to select a camp, plan, and pack
- Spending practice time away from home, such as a long weekend at a friend or relative’s house
- Experimenting with the best coping strategies during this practice separation
- Preparing pre-stamped, pre-addressed envelopes to bring to camp

The most common mistake adults can make is the ‘Pick-Up Deal.’ It’s normal for children to ask, ‘what if I feel homesick or want to go home?’ Tell your child that feelings of missing home are normal and help them practice coping before camp starts. Try not to say, “If you feel homesick or don’t want to be at camp anymore, I’ll come get you,” as campers will have it set in their mind that they can go home anytime they want. This conveys a message of doubt and pity that undermines children’s confidence and independence. ‘Pick-Up Deals’ become mental crutches and self-fulfilling prophecies for children as soon as they arrive at camp. If after spending practice time away from home, your child is still very anxious about overnight camp, consider waiting until next summer or trying a day camp.

About Rock Hill Camp

Camp Office Number: 845-628-6611

Check In/Check Out

- Check In for each session/week is on Sunday at 2pm
- Check Out is every Friday at 5pm
- Check-In will be done drive-through style. Please park behind the gate at the front entrance and wait until you are let in.
- We are continuing the drive-through style check-in process as we've found that it reduces rates of missing home in campers and helps with their transition to camp.
- If you arrive early, please stay in your vehicle until check-in/check-out begins. If you plan on picking up your camper early, make sure to inform the Camp Director via phone, email, and/or written on the Pick-Up form in CampDocs.
- Please make sure that your camper is wearing appropriate closed toed shoes at check-in, and that they are carrying a backpack with a water bottle, sunscreen, and bug repellent.

Health Check at Camp Check-In:

All campers will be checked for a fever and head lice during the Check-In process. Campers with either lice or nits will be sent home for treatment to ensure the health and safety of the rest of our camp community. The camper may be admitted to camp for a later session once they are lice and nit free. The payment for your session will be applied to a future camp session in the summer. If no sessions are available, you will receive a refund minus the $75 deposit. For prevention, we highly encourage parents to check for lice prior to arriving at camp.

Camp Visitors/Phone Calls:

Because camp is a growing experience, visiting campers during a session is not permitted and campers cannot be contacted by telephone. Please do not promise your camper she will be able to call home. You are encouraged to write letters! Please also refrain from calling camp staff to 'check-in' on your camper. If there is a concern or a problem, camp staff will contact you. Think 'no news is good news'!

Mail at Rock Hill Camp

Mail (Resident Camp Only)

Campers love getting mail! You can bring camper mail to Check-In for the entire week and save yourself some postage. To send something to your camper via USPS, each camp's mailing address is the same as the physical address. Keep in mind that anything mailed after Monday may not arrive before Check-Out on Friday.

Remember, before dropping off camper mail at Check-In, make sure to include: Camper Name and Camper's Session Name: If there are specific days you want items delivered, please also write this on the envelope.

Important Note: Do not send food, snacks, candy, gum, soda, electronics, etc., to your camper. Food and sweets are not allowed in the units due to insects and other critters. They will be taken by camp staff and returned at checkout.

You can also send your camper at Rock Hill Camp a CampGram through the CampGram portal on CampDocs. These will be printed each day and given out during mail time. Mail time is once a day between Siesta and Dinner. Anything sent after 11am will be printed and delivered the next day. We encourage parents and family members to send mail to their campers.

When writing your camper, we recommend keeping them informed of what's going on at home, but avoid going into great detail (good or bad) since your camper might feel they are missing something back home. Camp Directors advise parents not to mention how much they miss their child or that 'the dog or cat or grandparent' miss them. Don't worry! Your natural reaction is to call on the first day around bedtime to see how your camper is doing. The GSHH camp staff are trained in dealing with missing home/homesickness. If we have concerns about your camper, be assured we will contact you – think 'no news is good news!' We're partners in your child's summer camp adventure!

Say:

- You'll have so much fun!
- Make new friends!
- Challenge yourself and try new things.
- Write to me about all the fun you're having.
- I cannot wait to hear about your week!

Don't Say:

- I'll miss you.
- I wish your friend could go with you.
- If you don't like camp, I'll come pick you up.
- I wish we could talk on the phone while you're at camp.
- I hope you aren't missing me too much.
